The Humanist Way

Rev. Tim Temerson

Barret Bills

Few movements have generated more controversy, confusion, and questions than Humanism. In this six session course, we will seek to answer some of those questions by exploring the history, core ideas and values, and future directions of Humanism. Topics being addressed include Humanism's relationship with organized religion, it's influence on Unitarian Universalism, and the growth and impact of Humanist ideas among non-Western and oppressed communities.

Classes start
February
6th and 7th!

The course will be offered in two sections, Tuesday mornings at 10AM and Wednesday evenings at 7PM. Students are encouraged to purchase the book Reason and Reverence by William Murry. New copies of the book are only available from the UUA, which the church bookstore has ordered in quantity. So students signing up for the class are encouraged to purchase the book from the church. To register, please sign up during Coffee Hour or contact the church office at uuakronoffice@gmail.com or \(330\) 836-2206
