

Sunday, June 2 at 10:30 a.m.
"Bridging & Bubbles: A Picnic Celebration"
Rev. Tim Temerson, Rich Roberts

Join us for our annual church picnic which will be held at the UU Church of Akron. We will be celebrating our high school seniors as they bridge into young adulthood and sharing in our annual "Bubble Communion." The service will also feature the musical talents of the UUCA Picnic Band! We will be celebrating with the May Pole after service too!

Sunday, June 9 at 10:30 a.m.
"Living the Shirk Ethic"
Rev. Tim Temerson

Too often, we find ourselves trapped in a constant state of doing and more doing with little time left for resting, breathing, and just being. Today's service will celebrate the beauty of rest and of living a life in which we take time to shirk rather than work!

Sunday, June 16 at 10:30 a.m.
"The Dignity of Freedom"
Cir L'Bert Jr.

On Juneteenth we celebrate the emancipation of African-Americans from chattel slavery. Join us for a service where we'll explore what the Unitarian Universalist "First Principle" can tell us about the right to freedom, the indignity of incarceration, and the rising movement to end cash bail.

Sunday, June 23 at 10:30 a.m.
"For the Birds"
Susan Wynn

Today we'll look at why birding is so popular. Could there be something about it that's spiritual?

Sunday, June 30 at 10:30 a.m.
"Minding the Void"
Patty O'Shea

If it is true that "Nature Abhors a Vacuum", and who am I to argue with Aristotle, then do we have something to say with what fills our spaces vacated by loss and tragedy? Can we choose what fills in the gaps? Join Patty O'Shea for an exploration of emptied and filled spaces.
