“A Picnic Celebration”

Rev. Tim Temerson, Susan Wynn, &
Rich Roberts, DRE

As summer begins and our church year draws to a close, we will gather at Goodyear Hts. Metro Park to celebrate our community and all that we have shared and experienced together this year. Today’s service will include wonderful music from our Picnic Band and light, soapy objects that float through the air will play a big part in our celebration!

“Beginner’s Mind”

Rev. Tim Temerson & Jacquie Zarley

We live in a world of judgments and expectations – judgments we make about ourselves and the expectations others have for us. Too often, those judgments and expectations are a source of stress, anxiety, and even conflict. What would it be like if we could live with something called “Beginner’s Mind,” an idea that comes from Zen Buddhism and that invites us to live from a place of newness and beginning again?

"What Does It Mean to Be 'Spiritually Oriented?'"

Pamela Garn Nunn

Unitarian Universalists can be extremely diverse in their beliefs and practices. Still, Rev. Karen Herring suggests, we all have an "inner spiritual compass" that can help us find our own definitions and practices of spirituality. You may have discovered that compass as a child within your family or later in life with your UU family or somewhere in between. On this Father's Day we will discuss the possibilities for discovering spirituality throughout our lives..

“If you can keep your head...” (Kipling)

Elizabeth Reilly

What does it mean to stay calm in the midst of turmoil? Is it really a good idea? Should we really just “be still”? Is that a legitimate way to respond when one’s faith in human nature is under assault? Using poetry, history and introspection, we will grapple together with these questions. You are encouraged to bring noisemakers with you, as well as a spirit ready for deep quiet.
