

Sunday, June 3 at 10:30 a.m.
"A Picnic Celebration"
Rev. Tim Temerson, Rich Roberts, and Jacquie Zarley

As we look forward to summer, we will gather at the UU Church of Akron to celebrate our community and all that we have shared and experienced together this year. Today's service will include wonderful music from our Picnic Band and light, soapy objects that float through the air will play a big part in our celebration!

Sunday, June 10 at 10:30 a.m.
"Smelly Kid Theology: Stories from the Margins"
Jacquie Zarley

Today's service offers a look at Liberation Theology through a Humanist lens. Jacquie Zarley is a member of the UU Church of Akron and serves as our Adult Religious Education Coordinator. Jacquie is also seminarian at the Methodist Theological School of Ohio.

Sunday, June 17 at 10:30 a.m.
"Juneteenth: The Question of Freedom"
Cir L'Bert

Join us as we celebrate the liberation of Black people from chattel slavery in the U.S. and consider how we can move toward a greater freedom for all.

Sunday, June 24 at 10:30 a.m.
"Tending the Holy: The Art and Practice of Spiritual Direction"
Bethany Ward & Joy Ann Smole

Spiritual Direction provides an accepting, non-judgmental listening space where the hidden parts of your life may be gently acknowledged as you also uncover your unique relationship to all aspects of being human. Join UU Spiritual Director, Bethany Ward, as we explore how the art and practice of Spiritual Direction can invite the free and responsible search for truth and meaning? The service will also include a brief reflection by Joy Ann Smole about her experience with spiritual direction.